WHO'S WHO

CHET CARLIN

This is my first "one-man" show, a fact that I find both exciting and challenging. It's not the first time I've played a real politician however, I have played Hubert Humphrey, Nikita Khrushchev and several other characters in Gore Vidal's brilliant play, An Evening With Richard Nixon And . . . We opened on Broadway during Nixon's re-election campaign, closed in three weeks and he got elected.

I've been fortunate enough to play a wide variety of roles during my tenure in the professional theatre. Off-Broadway I played the magician, El Cid, in Brian Friel's Crystal & Fox and the Chocolate Soldier in Shaw's Arms and the Man. I've appeared here at Ivoryton as a Jockey in Jockey Club Stakes with Wilfred Hyde-White and as the Dirty Old Millionaire, Sir Osgood Fielding, in Sugar with Alan Sues. In regional theatres such as the Bucks County Playhouse, the McCarter Theatre and the Goodman Theatre in Chicago I appeared as the young cleric, Lexy, in Candida with Faye Dunaway, Cis Farrington in The Magistrate and the young drunk, Skip Hampton, in Preston Jones' wonderful new play The Last Meeting of the Knights of the White Magnolia.

Acting has also given me a chance to travel. I toured the U.S. and Canada playing Tranio in Shakespeare's Taming of the Shrew and got to Europe twice doing Chekov's Marriage Proposal and O'Neill's Ah! Wilderness!

On television I've appeared on Edge of Night and Ryan's Hope and, if you don't blink, I appeared in the film The Gambler with James Caan.

I always liked Harry Truman and I'm delighted to have an opportunity to "be" him.

SUE LAWLESS

Sue feels equally at home on stage or as a director. Her most recent New York directorial credit, In Gay Company, won a Drama Desk nomination. Marilyn Stasio of Cue says of the performer: "Sue Lawless is one of the funniest ladies alive." With her comedy partner, Ted Pugh (Mr. Price for A&P), she has appeared on all major talk shows, including "The Tonight Show," "The Merv Griffin Show," and even "The Joe Franklin Show!" For dinner theatres, she has directed such names as Gale Storm, Joan Bennett, Marjorie Lord, and Victor Jory. Most recently, she directed Eddie Bracken in A Funny Thing . . . Last summer, here at Ivoryton, she directed the production of Lovers and Other Strangers.
